Peter Quiggins (Tierney) "Killer Culture"

"Those that give up Liberty for short term security, Deserve neither Liberty or Security"

Plunder Part 4/10.. 'IDP' (Internal Displaced Person) Although it wasn't until the Jewish event, with the uncertainty of impending evictions I arranged for my disabled son to stay with his brother who had 'for geographical reasons' previously taken up full time residence with his mother. I had thought it would be a short term solution not realising it would take me almost 18 months to remedy some sort of secure residence to get him back into my full time care.

the last few decades of such syndromes as Obsessive

From infancy, my son no doubt a vaccine damaged child has had border line autistic/aspergers and later on symptoms of OCD and is under outpatient psychiatric care. Such fear and anxiety disorders are associated with hyperactivity of the amygdala or having one amygdala that is smaller than the other. The sudden development within experiment one night, from which point his condition was seen to accelerate and made even worse after I unknowingly delivered him into the hands of so called intellectually superior psychiatrists and psychologists who from the outset failed to take a simple blood test which would have identified and able to treat the corrosive chemical. Such a test should have been done well before initiating injurious anti-psychotic treatment. Such people have almost 'legally' lobotomised him with a toxic mix of hallucinogenic remedies leaving him in a type of suspended animated state as another damaged long term customer of the unethical industry who's power far outstrips the law. With actions against himself getting more serious my son had been rapidly deteriorating for some time following our eviction. Still more confusing to him is the loss of all his own property and personal belongings, bed, furniture, TV, music equipment and clothing etc.. The most dramatic effect on him has been leaving behind his peaceful garden and surroundings that had brought stability to his isolated world. I having had the likes of drug infused MTV etc a fashionable introduction to ecstasy lead my son to home he was still choosing to live out of a suitcase; a major factor in his inability to feel secure or have the privacy his condition demanded. Even more so his condition had developed reliance on me-his dad and the separation caused anxiety. Consequently, I found that I was taking him to the hospital A+E for treatment more frequently affecting all the family. At this point I knew I had to take immediate action to bring some security to my son's life. I had to bring a halt to my yearlong couch surfing, empty property squatting and temporary position myself back into the despotic system. An indication of our plight occurred during my son's last episode. My son's mother registered him with the council to get him a place of his own, the privatised group trusts that constitute 'council housing' now, knowing as his carer I would move in with him. From the outset he was awarded level C on the housing need scale, a low level band from their so called trust group partnership that could have taken years to remedy. A major problem contributing to my not finding a solution sooner was my inexperience and suspicion of the complex despotic social system. At the time of our eviction I only had the income from my carers allowance or jointly my son's disability allowance that was being drained by the DWP (Department of works and pensions) over court and bailiff costs to work with and in gaining stable refuge for my disable son as soon as possible. I had been previously told of organisations like the Whitechapel centre, or alternatively the Salvation Army in Liverpool. Both registered charities offering shelter to occupying imports invading our land but were also obliged to take in displaced locals. This was another eye opening journey for me. I was now seeing first hand at base level the objectives of the castroite system constructed by the Jewish infiltrators. They offered Afterwards I sat in the makeshift canteen for an hour with other IDP's and occupying imports. I contemplated events while waiting to be screened. Then I was called back into the office to be further interviewed, this time by the management and one staff member. Here I was pilloried, told to read their equality rules and warned they had researched my back ground through media articles on the net. Informing me that I was still a member of so called 'nationalist' parties (government set ups full of wandering Jews that I left in March 2012) and that I had made my nationalist politics public. They needed reassurance that I would keep to the rules and keep political opinions to myself, telling me the shelter would be full of me, had all the hallmarks of the Marxist Frankfurt School and had alerted management to the of Self-Intolerand 'situation'. I could not believe the hypocrisy of the one sided rules they had lorded over me. So I immediately replied with..... Screening and singling me out with implied questioning re 'racism', 'hate' and 'homophobia' is full of bigotry in itself ..... You people are so ignorant of your own politics of 'racism' and 'hate'......How have you associated all this implied hate with my social conscience and national principles? ...... First off I am not with any

So don't warn me on how to behave to your guests...... I am not here for charity I am here for my entitlements, interests and social insurance.... yet since arriving at this shelter under no provocation I have been insulted and degraded by your staff and I have refrained from reacting .... but under these circumstances you give me no other option but to establish my position me to this position of dependency ......From the outset you asked me for my National Social insurance number followed by my signature which, obviously you are aware initiates the flow of credit from MY birth bond account which makes me an integral part to this so called benevolent agreement (commercial redemption), or more like a bait and switch to your private held trust of our true none profit State social mechanisms of entitlement and interests which you help plunder tax free for your off shore corporate financiers...... and the fact that I had enough to bring a discrimination charge, duty of care and breach of contract action against their so called benevolent charity. This could jeopardise their lucrative cash cow of people trading and EU and Parliamentary money laundering feeding a linked network of tax free, back up quango support groups, a place to farm new arrivals, like Crisis, Centrepoint and other local and national and corporate charity fronts, 2,... 3,.... 4 ....5,.... 6, ... Twenty minutes went by until I was called back into the office by the manager who continued with the paperwork. I was given a further apology being told I had been clever with my replies..... I stayed silent... This last statement revealed a lot more about her and the institution than she realised... I knew from that point they would be putting my name on alert. Nevertheless, before long I was accepted on their little exchanging life stories while in the background the Rabi's lantern TV projected the usual daily preconditioned instructions to the global mass. "How the hell was I to stay silent and not have an opinion amongst all this political commerce?" I was amongst a mixed bag of multiracial imports and indigenous youth. This included unwanted battle scarred British military that will be at risk of arrest as trained subversives when the shit hits the fan but until that time they are useful pawns. The Jewish occupier sees them as a lucrative resource when it comes to fundraising and charity foundation fronts or to acerbate the open wound of political conflicts in order that I was a millionaire. It is a huge joke that typically I was still being judged through Jewish media programming, a technique used by the Yiddish business for decades towards disobedient cattle that stray beyond the fence. It wasn't long before I was again in a heated back and forth discussion. I was told I would remain under investigation by

It eventually ended with a long silent pause!! When suddenly the manager replied 'Ok

This was on the condition that I would return to the Whitechapel at 8pm that night to be privately taxied over. Otherwise I could lose my long term eligibility to the service of this overnight, keep the homeless off the street, shelter.

The arrangement was a small waiting room (debtors prison) in the basement of their network hostel. All goyim (cattle) were allocated a floor space and for my 'comfort' given an almost clean worn out pillow and an old crispy sleeping bag. We were all monitored by an overnight male warden sitting at a computer in the same room, a compassionate guy who had himself previously been driven through the same despot system. Deep in thought, I soon settled amongst 9 other livestock assets (people) and we began healthy homogenous society the last person to be a displaced misfit would be a patriotic defender of his fatherland. However, my first overnight stay went without incident. We were wakened by the warden at 7.30am and privately taxied back over to the Whitechapel. Here we signed the routine register that insures the flow of tax free credit and were breakfast and shower facilities were marginally catered for. My foremost responsibility at that time was to get to my son as soon as possible. I dare not leave him alone once his mother had left for work. I had previously alerted the management to my responsibilities and it was agreed that I could leave as soon as I had the all clear from duty wardens. Soon the management had me back in the office interrogating me as to where all the money re Quiggins insurance compensation had gone; informing me that they had read
